DRIVING OUT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

It's supporters like you that make this event so spectacular. In just nine years, you have helped us raise more than 2.2 million dollars for Chrysalis.

Lauren Teahen and her husband Mark, a retired professional baseball player, founded Driving Out Domestic Violence in honor of Lauren's late mother, Shelley, a domestic abuse survivor. This year's exclusive gala is bringing the event full circle. Starting in Lauren and Mark Teahen's backyard in 2011, then growing over the years into a large two-day event, this year will culminate in an exclusive evening once again in the Teahen's backyard as the 10th and fi nal evening for the Driving Out Domestic Violence event. The event could not have been possible without the help from many chairs and co-chairs over the year and we look forward to honoring each of them this evening.

For the past 40 years, Chrysalis has led the community to broad-based solutions to prevent domestic abuse. Services include crisis shelter, transitional housing, outpatient counseling, offender treatment, victim advocacy and lay-legal support.
